New HKIEd Programmes!

Dear JUPAS Applicants,

Bachelor of Arts (Hons) in Language Studies
Bachelor of Social Sciences (Hons) in Global and Environmental Studies

We have much pleasure to announce that the University Grant Committee (UGC) has given its initial approval to the Institute to introduce the following new discipline-based undergraduate programmes in 2010/11.

Prog Code	Programme of Study
8600	3-year Full-time Bachelor of Arts (Hons) in Language Studies – Chinese
8612	3-year Full-time Bachelor of Arts (Hons) in Language Studies – English
8624	3-year Full-time Bachelor of Social Sciences (Hons) in Global and Environmental Studies

The Bachelor of Arts (Hons) in Language Studies aims to develop students' bilingual academic competence in Chinese and English, and trilingual proficiency in Cantonese, English and Putonghua. The programme will provide a comprehensive package of language enhancement activities, including a 4-week intensive Language Summer Camp. There are two major tracks in the programme: Chinese and English. While common core courses are shared in both major tracks, each track is treated as an independent choice for JUPAS admission purposes.

The Bachelor of Social Sciences (Hons) in Global and Environmental Studies aims to cultivate students as caring intellectuals who can analyse contemporary global and environmental affairs from multiple disciplinary and cultural perspectives, and make active contributions to local, national, regional and global society and environmental improvement. Students of the programme will have opportunities to participate in the international academic exchange programme or summer school organized by overseas universities.

Students who are interested to learn more about the programmes are most welcome to attend the Information Seminars to be held on 27 February 2010 (Saturday)
